

2007 ELECTION FACTS

The 2007 Scottish Parliamentary election produced the following result in terms of MSP numbers:

- 1 Turnout in the election was 51.7% in the constituency vote and 52.4% in the regional vote up from 2003 where the turnout was 49.4% in both the constituency and regional vote
- 1 Turnout varied on the constituency vote from 63.4% in Eastwood to 33.4% in Glasgow Shettleston
- 1 The opinion polls were broadly in line with the actual election result for the SNP, Conservative and Liberal Democrats but underestimated Labour support and overestimated support for the Greens, Socialists and Independents
- 1 Of the 129 MSPs there are 41 MSPs (31.8%) who did not serve in the previous term
- 1 43 women (33.3% of MSPs) have been elected to the third Scottish Parliament

providing research and information services to the Scottish Parliament 3